CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LVII—JANUARY-JUNE, 1943

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAC Will Try to Find Essential Jobs for Displaced College Teachers, 179
AASA, Preliminary Program for the St. Louis Meeting of the, 94; No Meeting of the, at St. Louis—"'Tis the War," 149
AATC, An Interim Report of the, C. W. HUNT, 415
Accrediting, Statement of Year's Activities of the Joint Committee on, J. J. TIGERT, 25
ACE, Summer Workshops under the Sponsorship of the, 209; Gains on the, Psychological Examination during the Freshman-Sophomore Years, M. W. BARNES, 250
Adult Education, in Wartime, 403; A Notable Conference on, 533; An Army Venture into, K. YOUNG, 546; Regional Conference on, May 19–20, 690
AFT: "One World": Its Promises Grow Brighter, 625
AFT's Illuminating Report on Postwar Problem No. 1, 493
ALA, A Series of Institutes for Librarians Sponsored by the, 97
Alberta Folklore Project, 699
Alexander, The Work of F. M., as an Introduction to Dewey's Philosophy of Education, F. P. JONES, 1
American, Life in Fiction, O. W. COAN and R. C. LILLARD, 130; Resolutions of the War Congress of, Industry, 208
ANSBACHER, H. L., Note on Dr. Foley's "A Simple Exercise in 'Cultural Correlation'," 23
"Appreciation Cannot Be Taught," L. FOLEY, 517
Are Laymen Chiefly Responsible for the Attack on Cultural Subjects?, H. LEADER, 659
Art and the War Effort, L. L. WINSLOW, 324
Associate's Degree, W. C. EELLS, 412
ATKINSON, C., Let's Reform the Ph.D., 502
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges—1942—Part II, R. WALTERS, 32
Attitudes, toward Germans, Japanese, Jews, and Nazis as Affected by the War, H. H. REMMERS, 138; toward Death, P. M. PITMAN, 476
AVA, Toledo Conference of, 40
AVERILL, L. A., Civilian Morale and Mental Health, 169
Awards, Drama, Offered by the DASU, 125
Axis, Education and the "Psychological Disarmament" of the, 96

BAGLEY, W. C., Persisting Prejudice against the Professor of Pedagogy, 191
Bard College Establishes a School of Public Affairs for Undergraduates, F. E. HIRSCH, 53
BARNES, M. W., Gains on the ACE Psychological Examination during the Freshman-Sophomore Years, 250
BEACH, A. W., Education in a World Peace Program, 298
BECK, W. I. T., Pro Virginibus Puerisque, 365
BECKER, H. R., Community Workshops, 327
BENNER, T. E., Moral versus Technological Values in Wartime Education, 19
Beveridge Report, T. D. A. COCKERELL, 326
Bifocal View of Education, S. G. NOBLE, 186
BLIVEN, B., Scientists at Sixteen, 57
BLUMBERG, P. S., Dear Old Latin!—The "Critic's" Rejoinder, 705
BOWLING, W. G., Debate in Academe, 273
BOYD, P. P., The "Times" Test and Our Public Schools, 620
BREWER, J. M., An SOS Curriculum for 16- and 17-Year-Old Boys, 688
BRICKMAN, W. W., Democratic Documents of the American Past and Present, 23; Curtailing the College Catalogue, 102; The Dewey Laudamus!, 246; The Expanding Concept of Bunk, 355; Education for Eternal Existence: The Philosophy of Jewish Education, 554; Aids to Book Selection, 606
BRIGGS, T. H., How to Write Books for High School Pupils, 528
Britain, Continues an Interesting Precedent, 235; National Youth Movement in, 495; Plans for Education of Demobilized Men and Women in, 595; Varying Views in, as to the "Messianic Complex," 651
British, War Bonuses for, Teachers, H. DAVIS, 259
Brotherhood Week, The Tenth Anniversary of, 12
BROWN, E. J., Football in a War Program, 20
BRUBACHER, J. S., "There's a Lion in the Way," 572
BRUNTZ, G. G., Of Unit Histories—Is There No End?, 568
BRYSON, L., A Posthumous Translation, 542
BUNZEL, J. H., Education in Progress, 480
BYRNS, R., About School Vacations, 175

California Committee on the Acceleration of Students, F. N. FREEMAN, 277
Canada: The Alberta Folklore Project, 699
Canada's Government and Universities See Eye to Eye on the Humanities, 264
Cancellation of Meetings Adds to the Duties of Educational Journals, 181
Capen, Chancellor, Warns against a Postwar Continuance of Wartime Curbs, 697
CARMICHAEL, L., The Relationship of the Federal Government to Education, 85
Case for Education, J. GEMMELL, 677
CASSIDY, R., Pass the Ammunition to the Girls, 408
CHAMPLIN, C. D., Democratic Education, 505
Charters, W. W., Is the New Chief of Federal Vocational Training, 10
Child-Care, An Institute for Family and, Services in Wartime at Vassar College, 625
Children, Easter Seals for Crippled, 124; Schools for, in Exile, 430; Museums of America go "All Out" for, J. R. FORBES, 437
China Turns Disaster into Triumph, 684
CHISHOLM, L. L., Shall We Have a Blitzkrieg in the Support of the Schools?, 133
Churchill's, The Place of Education in Winston, "Four-Year Plan," 347
Civilian Morale and Mental Health, L. A. AVERILL, 169

CONTENTS AND INDEX

VOLUME LVII—JANUARY-JUNE, 1943

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN SMALL CAPITALS

AAC Will Try to Find Essential Jobs for Displaced College Teachers, 179
AASA, Preliminary Program for the St. Louis Meeting of the, 94; No Meeting of the, at St. Louis—"'Tis the War," 149
AATC, An Interim Report of the, C. W. HUNT, 415
Accrediting, Statement of Year's Activities of the Joint Committee on, J. J. TIGERT, 25
ACE, Summer Workshops under the Sponsorship of the, 209; Gains on the, Psychological Examination during the Freshman-Sophomore Years, M. W. BARNES, 250
Adult Education, in Wartime, 403; A Notable Conference on, 533; An Army Venture into, K. YOUNG, 546; Regional Conference on, May 19–20, 690
AFT: "One World": Its Promises Grow Brighter, 625
AFT's Illuminating Report on Postwar Problem No. 1, 493
ALA, A Series of Institutes for Librarians Sponsored by the, 97
Alberta Folklore Project, 699
Alexander, The Work of F. M., as an Introduction to Dewey's Philosophy of Education, F. P. JONES, 1
American, Life in Fiction, O. W. COAN and R. C. LILLARD, 130; Resolutions of the War Congress of, Industry, 208
ANSBACHER, H. L., Note on Dr. Foley's "A Simple Exercise in 'Cultural Correlation'," 23
"Appreciation Cannot Be Taught," L. FOLEY, 517
Are Laymen Chiefly Responsible for the Attack on Cultural Subjects?, H. LEADER, 659
Art and the War Effort, L. L. WINSLOW, 324
Associate's Degree, W. C. EELLS, 412
ATKINSON, C., Let's Reform the Ph.D., 502
Attendance, Statistics of, in American Universities and Colleges—1942—Part II, R. WALTERS, 32
Attitudes, toward Germans, Japanese, Jews, and Nazis as Affected by the War, H. H. REMMERS, 138; toward Death, P. M. PITMAN, 476
AVA, Toledo Conference of, 40
AVERILL, L. A., Civilian Morale and Mental Health, 169
Awards, Drama, Offered by the DASU, 125
Axis, Education and the "Psychological Disarmament" of the, 96

BAGLEY, W. C., Persisting Prejudice against the Professor of Pedagogy, 191
Bard College Establishes a School of Public Affairs for Undergraduates, F. E. HIRSCH, 53
BARNES, M. W., Gains on the ACE Psychological Examination during the Freshman-Sophomore Years, 250
BEACH, A. W., Education in a World Peace Program, 298
BECK, W. I. T., Pro Virginibus Puerisque, 365
BECKER, H. R., Community Workshops, 327
BENNER, T. E., Moral versus Technological Values in Wartime Education, 19
Beveridge Report, T. D. A. COCKERELL, 326
Bifocal View of Education, S. G. NOBLE, 186
BLIVEN, B., Scientists at Sixteen, 57
BLUMBERG, P. S., Dear Old Latin!—The "Critic's" Rejoinder, 705
BOWLING, W. G., Debate in Academe, 273
BOYD, P. P., The "Times" Test and Our Public Schools, 620
BREWER, J. M., An SOS Curriculum for 16- and 17-Year-Old Boys, 688
BRICKMAN, W. W., Democratic Documents of the American Past and Present, 23; Curtailing the College Catalogue, 102; The Dewey Laudamus!, 246; The Expanding Concept of Bunk, 355; Education for Eternal Existence: The Philosophy of Jewish Education, 554; Aids to Book Selection, 606
BRIGGS, T. H., How to Write Books for High School Pupils, 528
Britain, Continues an Interesting Precedent, 235; National Youth Movement in, 495; Plans for Education of Demobilized Men and Women in, 595; Varying Views in, as to the "Messianic Complex," 651
British, War Bonuses for, Teachers, H. DAVIS, 259
Brotherhood Week, The Tenth Anniversary of, 12
BROWN, E. J., Football in a War Program, 20
BRUBACHER, J. S., "There's a Lion in the Way," 572
BRUNTZ, G. G., Of Unit Histories—Is There No End?, 568
BRYSON, L., A Posthumous Translation, 542
BUNZEL, J. H., Education in Progress, 480
BYRNS, R., About School Vacations, 175

California Committee on the Acceleration of Students, F. N. FREEMAN, 277
Canada: The Alberta Folklore Project, 699
Canada's Government and Universities See Eye to Eye on the Humanities, 264
Cancellation of Meetings Adds to the Duties of Educational Journals, 181
Capen, Chancellor, Warns against a Postwar Continuance of Wartime Curbs, 697
CARMICHAEL, L., The Relationship of the Federal Government to Education, 85
Case for Education, J. GEMMELL, 677
CASSIDY, R., Pass the Ammunition to the Girls, 408
CHAMPLIN, C. D., Democratic Education, 505
Charters, W. W., Is the New Chief of Federal Vocational Training, 10
Child-Care, An Institute for Family and, Services in Wartime at Vassar College, 625
Children, Easter Seals for Crippled, 124; Schools for, in Exile, 430; Museums of America go "All Out" for, J. R. FORBES, 437
China Turns Disaster into Triumph, 684
CHISHOLM, L. L., Shall We Have a Blitzkrieg in the Support of the Schools?, 133
Churchill's, The Place of Education in Winston, "Four-Year Plan," 347
Civilian Morale and Mental Health, L. A. AVERILL, 169

Classicists Protest against EPC's Attack on Latin, 429
Classics, War or No War, the, Carry on, 317; In Defense of the, in Wartime Education, 663
CLEAVER, H., Fiestas in Missouri, 79
COAN, O. W., and R. C. LILLARD, American Life in Fiction, 130
COCKERELL, T. D. A., Moving Pictures and International Good Will, 272; The Beveridge Report, 326
College, Curricula, the War Effort, and Postwar Stabilization, P. M. TINSLEY, 281; Curriculum Patterns Required for, Admission, M. HUNSINGER, 361; A Proposed Manual-Labor, in Indiana in 1835, W. B. HENDRICKSON, 426; Registration Service for the Camps and Cantonments, 561
Colleges, Where Are the, of Yesteryear?, 306
Commencements, Mid-Year, 150
Comments on a Misleading Title, W. H. RICE, 634
Common Misconceptions about Testing and Evaluation, H. B. DUNKEL, 617
Conant, President, on "Science and Society in the Postwar World," 232
Conference of Librarians and College Executives in Louisiana, 380
Conservation, Experiment in, 123
Consumer Education, Three-Year Study of, 11
Contest, Essay, on "Making America Strong," 13
Contribution of the University to the Winning of the War and the Peace, W. P. FOLLEY, 113
Convention Never Held, B. FARLEY, 549
COULTER, V. C., There's Something about a Word, 504; More about Less Grammar, 572
CRONBACH, L. J., Pupil-Morale after One Year of War, 416
Cumulative Significance of a Number of Independent Experiments, T. L. KELLEY, 482
Curriculum Patterns Required for College Admission, M. HUNSINGER, 361
Curtailing the College Catalogue, W. W. BRICKMAN, 102

DAVIDOFF, P., and H. C. GORDON, Honesty of Pupils in Answering Adjustment Questionnaires, 54
DAVIS, H., War Bonuses for British Teachers, 259
DAVIS, W. C., Higher Education Becoming of Age, 188
Debate in Academe, W. G. BOWLING, 273
Degree, A New: "World Citizen," M. W. LAMPE, 393; The Associate's, W. C. EELLS, 412; Let's Reform the Ph.D., C. ATKINSON, 502; News Items from the University of Pennsylvania (Doctor of Education), 626
Degrees: More Universities Offer the Ed.D.; More Junior Colleges, the Associate's Degree, 234
Democracy and the Totalitarian State, T. E. WILLIAMS, 325
DEXTER, E. S., Roommates: Intelligence vs. Marks, 194; Twins in "Who's Who in America," 219
DE YOUNG, C. A., Teacher-Learners in Workshops, 672
DILLA, G. P., Valentine for an Ambitious Instructor, 185; Professor Withers's "Witnessing for Latin"—a Criticism of His Critic, 274
Discipline versus Freedom in Wartime Education, C. I. GLICKSBERG, 243
Distorted Reasoning as an Index of Public Opinion, J. J. B. MORGAN and J. T. MORTON, 333
Do Virtues and Vices Change?, C. MITCHELL, 111
DODGE, H. L., How May the Increasing Demands for Teachers of Physics Be Met?, 22; War Manpower Situation in Physics, 299
DOMINCOVICH, H. A., "Literature for Individual Education," 49
DOYLE, H. G., Growth of the Washington Inter-American Training Center, 387
Dr. Rumely and Interlaken, C. R. MORRIS, 500
Drexel Institute of Technology, New Entrance Requirements at, 209
DUDLEY, F. A., Re-Education for Life, 91
DUNKEL, H. B., Common Misconceptions about Testing and Evaluation, 617

Easter Seals for Crippled Children, 124
Economics, Experiments in Applied, 594
Education, Geographical Distribution of Leaders in,—1941, J. R. SHANNON and M. A. KITTLE, 26; 1943 as a Centennial Year in the History of, W. C. EELLS, 47; Relationship of the Federal Government to, L. CARMICHAEL, 85; and the "Psychological Disarmament" of the Axis, 96; Political Attacks on Higher, R. PULLIAM, 101; Bifocal View of, S. G. NOBEL, 186; Higher, Becoming of Age, W. C. DAVIS, 188; Training vs., D. SNEDDEN, 214; Is Higher, Expendable in Wartime?, I. D. WEEKS, 253; in a World Peace Program, A. W. BEACH, 298; in the Occupied and in the Axis Countries, 319; NBC Dedicates Six Programs to, 319; and Postwar Problems, C. D. THORPE, 337; The Place of, in Winston Churchill's "Four-Year Plan," 347; Grooms the City-Bred Youth for the Farm, 348; Inter-American, in New Jersey State Teachers Colleges, 350; Adult, in Wartime, 403; Postwar, of Europe, 428; Books of 1942, J. L. WHEELER, M. E. HAWES, and M. GUSE, 452; The Fourteenth Institute for, by Radio, 471; for Eternal Existence: The Philosophy of Jewish, W. W. BRICKMAN, 554; and Discipline, A. A. GRUSENDORF, 569; The "Spirit of Unthoroughness" in American Life and, 592; Plans for, of Demobilized Men and Women in Britain, 595; What Price Postwar Liberal, 595; As the Teachers Colleges Ignore the "Externa" of, H. K. MULFORD, 600; Items of Interest from the International Bureau of, 608; Weapons of, G. D. STODDARD, 613; Appropriations for, again Increased in England, 654; versus Prohibition, 665; The Case for, J. GEMMELL, 677; Federal-Aid Bill for, Clears Its First Hurdle, 681; Supreme Court Hands Down an Educationally Significant Decision, 696
Educational, Essential Items for, Reconstruction in England, 97; Cancellations of Meetings Adds to the Duties of, Journals, 181; Issues of 1942 and the Task Ahead, C. V. GOOD, 341; A National, Planning Commission Organized, 682
EELLS, W. C., 1943 as a Centennial Year in the History of Education, 47; Going to College on $154 a Year—in 1858, 220; Status of the Junior College in the United States, 1942–43, 328; The Associate's Degree, 412
Encyclopaedia Britannica Fellowships, 666
Engineering, Selection of, Apprentices, F. H. KIRKPATRICK, 570
England, Essential Items for Educational Reconstruction in, 97; Appropriations for Education again Increased in, 654
England's Board of Education on "The First Duty of Teachers," 471
Environmental Differences of Children in the Same Family or School, B. R. SIMPSON, 396

EPC's, The Classicists Protest against, Attack on Latin, 429
"Eternal Verities," Are There?, W. S. MORRIS, 217
Evaluation in the Southern Association Study, V. M. SIMS, 76
Examination, Seventeenth National Competitive, for High-School Pupils, 13
Exchange Fellowships for United States Students Out "for the Duration," 68
Expanding Concept of Bunk, W. W. BRICKMAN, 355
Experiment in Conservation, 123

Fabian Policy, No, at the University of Chicago, 124
FARLEY, B., The Convention Never Held, 549; War-Fitness Conference, 674
Federal-Aid Bill, A New, Is Introduced, W. E. GIVENS, 276; for Education Clears Its First Hurdle, 681
Fellowship, for Research in Public Relations, 180; Germanistic Society, for 1943, 235
Fellowships, Library, at the University of Chicago, 42; Exchange, for United States Students Out "for the Duration," 68; Encyclopaedia Britannica, 666
FENTON, N., and M. L. LIPSCOMB, Using University Dormitories in Training Guidance Specialists, 248
FERGUSON, K. B., Nationalism after the War, 309
Fiestas in Missouri, H. CLEAVER, 79
Films, Distribution of War, 123
Finance, Trends and Problems in State School, 68
Florida, A Program for Staffing the Schools of, in Wartime, A. R. MEAD, 509
FOLEY, L., "Appreciation Cannot Be Taught," 517
Foley's, A Note on Dr., "A Simple Exercise in 'Cultural Correlation'," H. L. ANSBACHER, 23
Follow-Up Study of General College Graduates, W. J. HUMBER, 164
Following a Great Tradition Even in War, 152
Football in a War Program, E. J. BROWN, 20
FORBES, J. R., Museums of America Go "All Out" for Children, 437
Foreign, Languages: Old Friends with New Faces, 180; Further News of, Education Released by the OWI, 563; What about, Languages?, J. F. GUMMERE, 581
"Fortune's" High-School Survey, A. M. WITHERS, 302
Forward, to Fundamentals, G. R. JOHNSON, 603; to More Effective Health Education, R. STRANG, 693
France, Initial Problems of the Refugee Children's Homes in Montmorency, E. PAPANEK, 141
FREDENBURGH, F. A., War Demands for Student-Personnel Service, 255
Freedom, Only the Disciplined Mind Can Maintain, P. KLAPPER, 661
FREEMAN, F. N., The California Committee on the Acceleration of Students, 277
FREEMAN, F. S., A Plan Concerning High-School and College Inductees, 285
Fundamentals, Forward to, G. R. JOHNSON, 603

Gains on the ACE Psychological Examination during the Freshman-Sophomore Years, M. W. BARNES, 250
GEMMELL, J., The Case for Education, 677
Geographical Distribution of Leaders in Education—1941, J. R. SHANNON and M. A. KITTLE, 26
Georgia Recovering Educational Sanity, 150
Germanistic Society Fellowship for 1943, 235
GIVENS, W. E., A New Federal-Aid Bill Is Introduced, 276
GLICKSBERG, C. I., Discipline versus Freedom in Wartime Education, 243
Going to College on $154 a Year—in 1858, W. C. EELLS, 220
GOOD, C. V., Educational Issues of 1942 and the Task Ahead, 341
GOODIER, F. T., Jesus, the Teacher, 225
GOODMAN, N. G., Teachers and the Shape of Things to Come, 632
GORDON, H. C., and P. DAVIDOFF, Honesty of Pupils in Answering Adjustment Questionnaires, 54
Graduates, Follow-Up Study of General College, W. J. HUMBER, 164
Grammar, for Whom?, G. R. JOHNSON, 216; More about Less, V. C. COULTER, 572
Greek, Wendell L. Willkie on Latin and, A. M. WITHERS, 659
GRUSENDORF, A. A., Education and Discipline, 569
Guidance, Using University Dormitories in Training, Specialists, M. L. LIPSCOMB and N. FENTON, 248
GUMMERE, J. F., What about Foreign Languages?, 581
GUSE, M., J. L. WHEELER and M. E. HAWES, Education Books of 1942, 452

HAMILTON, J. T., Letter to President Roosevelt, 189
HARDING, L. W., White Consultants to a Negro College Workshop, 413
HARTSON, L. D., School Marks vs. Mental Tests in Rating Secondary Schools: A Second Study, 80
Harvard University, A New Agreement between Radcliffe College and, 562
HAWES, M. E., M. GUSE and J. L. WHEELER, Education Books of 1942, 452
Health, Mental and Social, in Health Education, R. SPENCER, 239; School Children Who Are Underweight, M. V. MARSHALL and M. L. HUBER, 610; Forward to More Effective, Education, R. STRANG, 693
Heavy, Heavy Hangs over the Heads of Historians, L. W. KLINE, 435
HENDRICKS, C. H., Salary Increases, 213
HENDRICKSON, W. B., A Proposed Manual-Labor College in Indiana in 1835, 426
HENNEL, C. B., To Those Who Retire, 703
High-School, Seventeenth National Competitive Examination for, Pupils, 13; Should Selected Senior, Students Be Admitted to College?, J. K. NORTON, 45; Yale University's Policy Regarding the Admission of, Seniors, E. S. NOYES, 104; Admission of, Pupils to College, 207; New Entrance Requirements at Drexel Institute of Technology, 209; Problems Confronting the Average, Graduate, R. L. REEVES, 215; "Fortune's," Survey, A. M. WITHERS, 302; Admission of, Seniors at the University of Minnesota, 379; Personal Problems of, Pupils, C. POPE, 443; How to Write Books for, Pupils, T. H. BRIGGS, 528; Mathematics: Higher Standards or More Time, G. WAKEHAM, 540; An Educational Bridge between, and the Army, 562
High Schools, A Protest against War Hysteria in, J. R. SHANNON, 217; and the War, R. PULLIAM, 354; A Defense of the, against Charges of War Hysteria, C. H. SIEMENS, 412; Vocational Education and Industrial-Arts Classes in, M. WOLFSON, 576

Higher, Education Becoming of Age, W. C. DAVIS, 188; Institutions Have Lost 7,000 Staff Members since 1941–42, 401
HILL, W., Hemispheric Understanding, 636
HILLWAY, T., The Fallacy of Indoctrination, 409
HIRSCH, F. E., Bard College Establishes a School of Public Affairs for Undergraduates, 53
Histories, Of Unit,—Is There No End?, G. G. BRUNTZ, 568
History, and the World Revolution, M. SAVELLE, 61; Should the Study of American, in College Be Made Compulsory?, C. P. MCCLELLAND, 64; The Stanford Conference of Junior-College Teachers of American, G. H. KNOLES, 162; Why Study, R. V. MAGERS, 197; Expanding Concept of Bunk, W. W. BRICKMAN, 355; "The New York Times" Again Investigates the Teaching of, 403; Heavy, Heavy Hangs over the Heads of Historians, L. W. KLINE, 435; Compulsory American, in Colleges, A. V. LOCKHART, 439; Are "Educators" to Blame for the Poor Results Shown by the "Times" Test?, 560; The "Times" Test and Our Public Schools, P. P. BOYD, 620; What Is, R. S. SHAW, 634; Progressive Methods as Related to Knowledge of American, A. E. TRAXLER, 640; How Do Senior College Students and Adult Groups Stand on the "Times" Test?, 654
Hitler, Education of Adolf, C. A. QUATTLEBAUM, 242
Holding the Line for Civilization on the Home Front, R. PULLIAM, 132
Holland's, The Nazis "Liquidate," Intellectuals, 293
Honesty of Pupils in Answering Adjustment Questionnaires, H. C. GORDON and P. DAVIDOFF, 54
Honor Roll of Race Relations for 1942, 206
HORNE, H. H., The Trilemma in American Philosophy of Education, 441
How May the Increasing Demands for Teachers of Physics Be Met?, H. L. DODGE, 22
HUBBEN, W., Some Future Tasks of the Private School, 230
HUBER, M. L., and M. V. MARSHALL, School Children Who Are Underweight, 610
Humanities, Canada's Government and Universities See Eye to Eye on the, 264; The University of Wisconsin Revises Its Program in the, 698
HUMBER, W. J., Follow-Up Study of General College Graduates, 164
HUME, R. A., Shall We Be More Practical?, 4
HUNSINGER, M., Curriculum Patterns Required for College Admission, 361
HUNT, C. W., An Interim Report of the AATC, 415

Ibero-American Congress in New Orleans, W. PEISER, 193
If the Public Is Confused, What Can Libraries Do about It?, 233
In-Service Teacher Education, Conference on, 262
Indoctrination, Fallacy of, T. HILLWAY, 409
Inductees, Pre-Induction Training for Prospective Army, 512
Initial Problems of the Refugee Children's Homes in Montmorency, France, E. PAPANEK, 141
Institute, of American History at Stanford University, G. H. KNOLES, 247; for Family and Child-Care Services in Wartime at Vassar College, 625
Inter-American, Education in New Jersey State Teachers Colleges, 350; Growth of the Washington, Training Center, H. G. DOYLE, 387; Student Conference at Bard College, 578
Interlaken, Dr. Rumely and, C. R. MORRIS, 500
International, Council on Education: A Significant Postwar Agency, 470; Items of Interest from the, Bureau of Education, 608
IQ Skullduggery?, H. G. JOHNSON, 269
Is Higher Education Expendable in Wartime?, I. D. WEEKS, 253
ISRAELI, N., Psychology of Wartime Planning, 704

JAARSMA, C., Open Letter to Dr. Kilpatrick, 326
Japanese, Shortage of Instructors in, and Chinese Languages, 125
Jesus, the Teacher, F. T. GOODIER, 225
Jewish, Education for External Existence: The Philosophy of, Education, W. W. BRICKMAN, 554
JOHNSON, G. R., Grammar for Whom?, 216; Forward to Fundamentals, 603
JOHNSON, H. G., IQ Skullduggery?, 269
JOHNSON, W. H., Physical Education and the War Program in the Chicago Public Schools, 587
"Join the 'Wits'!", 560
JONES, F. P., The Work of F. M. Alexander as an Introduction to Dewey's Philosophy of Education, 1
JONES, J., Newton in Texas, 508
Junior College, Advantages of a Separate Unit for Administering the, R. L. REEVES, 136; Status of the, in the United States, 1942–43, W. C. EELLS, 328; A Letter to Present and Prospective, Students, H. MCKELLIPS and N. RICCIARDI, 359
Junior Colleges, Adjusting California, to Wartime Needs, 70; Effect of the War on, in California, 387

KANDEL, I. L., Latin Americans Have Still to Be Heard from, 105; After Three Hundred Years, 137; Postwar Reprisals: Educational Blitz on Cologne, 353
KANDEL, I. L., and W. M. KOTSCHNIG, The Messianic Complex, 156
KDP's Annual Lecture Is Canceled for St. Louis but Will be Published, 97
KELLEY, T. L., The Cumulative Significance of a Number of Independent Experiments, 482
KERR, W. A., A Note on the Lack of Research in Music Schools, 476
KERSEY, V., A Novel Device for Presenting World News to the Public Schools, 605
KILPATRICK, W. H., Dr. Kilpatrick Addresses a Letter to the Editor, Who Replies, 159
Kindergarten, A Summer Workshop for Nursery School and, Teachers, 699
KIRKPATRICK, F. H., Selection of Engineering Apprentices, 570
KITTLE, M. A., and J. R. SHANNON, Geographical Distribution of Leaders in Education—1941, 26
KLAPPER, P., Only the Disciplined Mind Can Maintain Freedom, 661
KLINE, L. W., Heavy, Heavy Hangs over the Heads of Historians, 435
KNIGHT, E. W., The "Messianic" Invasion of the South after 1865, 645
Knight, Frederick B., to Head the Victory Farm Volunteer Program, 379
KNODE, J. C., A Survey and Some Conclusions, 118
KNOLES, G. H., The Stanford Conference of Junior-College Teachers of American History, 162; The

Institute of American History at Stanford University, 247
KOLLMAN, E. C., The Nature of This War and American Education, 201
KOTSCHNIG, W. M., and I. L. KANDEL, The Messianic Complex, 156

LAMPE, M. W., A New Degree: "World Citizen," 393
Language, Much Ado about, Nothings, A. M. WITHERS, 357; Teaching Goes to War, C. R. WALKER, 369
Latin, Classicists Protest against EPC's Attack on, 429; versus the English Dictionary, A. M. WITHERS, 541; A College Student's Evaluation of, E. J. SMITH, 658; Wendell L. Willkie on, and Greek, A. M. WITHERS, 659; Dear Old,—The "Critic's" Rejoinder, P. S. BLUMBERG, 705
Latin America: Ibero-American Congress in New Orleans, W. PEISER, 193; U. S. Students Win Scholarship Awards in, 404
Latin Americans Have Still to Be Heard from, I. L. KANDEL, 105
LEADER, H., Are Laymen Chiefly Responsible for the Attack on Cultural Subjects?, 659
Legislative Committee Reports on New York City's Public-School System, 289
Letter to President Roosevelt, J. T. HAMILTON, 189
Liberal, Survival of the, Arts College, C. C. WILLIAMS, 449; Education, the Social Sciences, and Total War, W. C. TROW, 522
Librarians, A Series of Institutes for, Sponsored by ALA, 97; The Work of the Committee on Aid to, in War Areas, 179; Conference of, and College Executives in Louisiana, 380
Library, Fellowships at the University of Chicago, 42; Schools in 1943, 318; A Two-Year In-Service Course in, Science at Drexel Institute of Technology, 626
Light in Darkness, J. M. MILLER, 296
LILLARD, R. C., and O. W. COAN, American Life in Fiction, 130
LIPSCOMB, M. L., and N. FENTON, Using University Dormitories in Training Guidance Specialists, 248
Literature in Wartime, J. R. MOORE, 631
LOCKHART, A. V., Compulsory American History in Colleges, 439
Looking Educationally toward a "Progressive Practical World," J. L. MERIAM, 384
Losses and Gains in the Personnel of the Higher Institutions, 95
Lowell, Abbott Lawrence: An Appreciation, F. W. SMITH, 239

MCCLELLAND, C. P., Should the Study of American History in College Be Made Compulsory?, 64
MCINTOSH, D. C., We Need More than Bifocals, 478
MCKELLIPS, H., and N. RICCIARDI, A Letter to Present and Prospective Junior-College Students, 358
MACKIE, R. A., The Relation of Education to Psychology, 305; The Newer Methods, 507
McNutt, Commissioner, Holds Out Hope for the Smaller Colleges, 178
MAGERS, R. V., Why Study History?, 197
MALLAM, D., A Writing Clinic at Iowa State College, 51
MARSHALL, M. V., and M. L. HUBER, School Children Who Are Underweight, 610
Mathematics, High-School: Higher Standards or More Time, G. WAKEHAM, 540
MEAD, A. R., A Program for Staffing the Schools of Florida in Wartime, 509
Meetings, Scheduled in the Interest of Education Become "War Casualties," 378; Two Important Announcements as to Canceled, 494
Mental and Social Health in Health Education, R. SPENCER, 239
MERIAM, J. L., Looking Educationally toward a "Progressive Practical World," 384
Messianic, Complex, I. L. KANDEL, 158; A Comment on the, Complex, W. C. TROW, 357; Invasion of the South after 1865, E. W. KNIGHT, 645; Varying Views in Britain as to the, Complex, 651
METCALFE, L. S., The Correlation of Slidefilms with the PIT Program, 442
Micro-Filming: The Work of the Committee on on Aid to Librarians in War Areas, 179
MILLER, J. M., Light in Darkness, 296
MILLIGAN, J. P., Wrath Incarnate, 75
MITCHELL, C., Do Virtues and Vices Change?, 111
MOORE, J. R., Literature in Wartime, 631
Moral versus Technological Values in Wartime Education, T. E. BENNER, 19
Morale, School, and Discipline as Affected by the War, 11; Poll on the Cornell University Campus, 349
MOREY, L., The Plight of the Teacher under the Present Federal Tax System, 314
MORGAN, J. J. B., and J. T. MORTON, Distorted Reasoning as an Index of Public Opinion, 333
MORRIS, C. R., Dr. Rumely and Interlaken, 500
MORRIS, W. S., Are There "Eternal Verities"?, 217
Moving Pictures and International Good Will, T. D. A. COCKERELL, 272
Much Ado about Language Nothings, A. M. WITHERS, 357
MULFORD, H. B., As the Teachers Colleges Ignore the "Externa" of Education, 600
Museums of America Go "All Out" for Children, J. R. FORBES, 437
Music, A Note on the Lack of Research in, Schools, W. A. KERR, 476

Nation-Wide Tests for Admission to the Navy College-Training Program, 359
National, An Official, Youth Policy, 261; Youth Movement in Britain, 495; Association of Deans and Advisers of Men, F. H. TURNER, 637; Educational Planning Commission Organized, 682
Nationalism after the War, K. B. FERGUSON, 309
Nature, of This War and American Education, E. C. KOLLMAN, 201; -Nurture Controversy: A Sociological Approach, N. PASTORE, 373; -Nurture: Nicholas Pastore and the Three Uncles, K. C. PRATT, 634
Navy, Nation-Wide Tests for Admission to the, College-Training Program, 359
Nazis "Liquidate" Holland's Intellectuals, 293
NBC, Dedicates Six Programs to Education, 319; The Forthcoming Series of, Broadcasts on the Basis for Peace, 593
NEA, Launches a War-and-Peace-Fund Campaign, 377; at Indianapolis, 624
Negro, College and the War-Training Program, L. L. WOODS, 19; Second Report on Changes in Attitudes toward the, M. SMITH, 388; White Consultants to a, College Workshop, L. W. HARDING, 413; Speaks Up for Himself, 707

Negro's Educational Advantages under Scrutiny, 69
New, Approach to the "Dark Tower" of Learning, 14; Degree: "World Citizen," M. W. LAMPE, 393; Development in American Science at Brown University, 561; Brand of Co-operation, 666
Newton in Texas, J. JONES, 508
Nicholas Pastore and the Three Uncles, K. C. PRATT, 634
NIETZ, J. A., Textbooks McGuffey Didn't Write, 421
1943 as a Centennial Year in the History of Eduation, W. C. EELLS, 47
No Treaty of Peace! G. E. SNAVELY, 485
NOBLE, S. G., Bifocal View of Education, 186
North Dakota Teachers Colleges Apprehensive, 263
NORTON, J. K., Should Selected Senior High-School Students Be Admitted to College?, 45
Norway under the Gestapo and the Quislings, 405
Note on Dr. Foley's "A Simple Exercise in 'Cultural Correlation'," H. L. ANSBACHER, 23
Notes on a South American Trip, C. WASHBURNE, 29
NOYES, E. S., Yale University's Policy Regarding the Admission of High-School Seniors, 104
NSSE Holds No Meeting but Publishes Its "Yearbook" as Usual, 348
Nursery-School, A Summer Workshop for, and Kindergarten Teachers, 699

OAK, V. V., Professional Ethics: A Reply, 49
One, in Four 18- 19-Year Old Selectees Rejected as Unfit, 402; World: Its Promises Grow Brighter, 625
Only the Disciplined Mind Can Maintain Freedom, P. KLAPPER, 661
Open Letter to Dr. Kilpatrick, C. JAARSMA, 326
OWI, Seeks to Extend Its Usefulness, 535, Further News of Foreign Education Released by the, 563

PAPANEK, E., Initial Problems of the Refugee Children's Homes in Montmorency, France, 141
PARKER, W. W., Simplicus and Perplexides Decide that Isolationism Is Not Dead, 73; Perplexides and Simplicus Discuss the Headmaster's Ideas, 268; Simplicus and Perplexides on Postwar Planning, 499; The Spring Sweat, 630
Pass the Ammunition to the Girls, R. CASSIDY, 408
PASTORE, N., The Nature-Nurture Controversy: A Sociological Approach, 373
Peace, Education in a World, Program, A. W. BEACH, 298; The Forthcoming Series of NBC Broadcasts on the Basis for, 593
PEISER, W., Ibero-American Congress in New Orleans, 193
People's College (Atlanta University): "The Descent from Olympus," 494
Perplexides and Simplicus Discuss the Headmaster's Ideas, W. W. PARKER, 268
Persisting Prejudice against the Professor of Pedagogy, W. C. BAGLEY, 191
Personnel, Losses and Gains in the, of the Higher Institutions, 95
PETERSON, B. H., Scholarship of Students Housed in Various Living Quarters, 221
Ph.D., Let's Reform the, C. ATKINSON, 502
Physical Education and the War Program in the Chicago Public Schools, W. H. JOHNSON, 587
PITMAN, P. M., Attitudes toward Death, 476
Placement, Problems of Professional, on the Upper Levels, L. PRICE, 507
Plan Concerning High-School and College Inductees, F. S. FREEMAN, 285
PLATT, A. W., Intrinsic Causes for Public-School Absences, 307
Plight of the Teacher under the Present Federal Tax System, L. MOREY, 314
Political Attacks on Higher Education, R. PULLIAM, 101
POPE, C., Personal Problems of High-School Pupils, 443
Postwar, With Rehabilitation Problems in Mind, 42; Shall We Have a Blitzkrieg in the Support of the Schools?, L. L. CHISHOLM, 133; Technology, C. C. PRATT, 145; President Conant on "Science and Society in the, World," 232; ". . . The Individual Withers, and the World Is More and More," 292; Education in a World Peace Program, A. W. BEACH, 298; But—There Is No Certainty of Restoration; H. S. TUTTLE, 303, Nationalism after the War, K. B. FERGUSON, 309; What Shall be the Role of Religion in the, World?, 317; Education and, Problems, C. D. THORPE, 337; The Place of Education in Winston Churchill's "Four-Year Plan," 347; Reprisals: Educational Blitz on Cologne, I. L. KANDEL, 353; Education of Europe, 428; A Significant, Agency, 470; AFT's Illuminating Report on, Problem No. 1, 493; Simplicus and Perplexides on, Planning, W. W. PARKER, 499; The Forthcoming Series of NBC Broadcasts on the Basis for Peace, 593; What Price, Liberal Education?, 595; "One World": Its Promises Grow Brighter, 625; Teachers and the Shape of Things to Come, N. G. GOODMAN, 632; Educational Approach to Our Slavic Ally, 665; National Educational Planning Commission Organized, 682; China Turns Disaster into Triumph, 684; Chancellor Capen Warns against a, Continuance of Wartime Curbs, 697
PRATT, C. C., Postwar Technology, 145
PRATT, K. C., Nicholas Pastore and the Three Uncles, 634
Pre-Induction Training for Prospective Army Inductees, 512
PRICE, L., Problems of Professional Placement on the Upper Levels, 507
Private School, Some Future Tasks of the, W. HUBBEN, 230
Private Schools: Whither Bound, Independent Secondary School?, J. L. SHERMAN, 300
Privately Endowed Colleges Challenged to Serve, 469
Pro Virginibus Puerisque, W. I. T. BECK, 365
Problems of Professional Placement on the Upper Levels, L. PRICE, 507
Professional Ethics: A Reply, V. V. OAK, 49
Professor Withers's "Witnessing for Latin"—a Criticism of His Critic, G. P. DILLA, 274
Prohibition, Education versus, 665
Proposed Manual-Labor College in Indiana in 1835, W. B. HENDRICKSON, 426
Public Relations, Fellowship for Research in, 180
PULLIAM, R., Political Attacks on Higher Education, 101; Holding the Line for Civilization on the Home Front, 132; The High Schools and the War, 354
Pupil-Morale after One Year of War, L. J. CRONBACH, 416

QUATTLEBAUM, C. A., The Education of Adolf Hitler, 242

Radcliffe College, A New Agreement between, and Harvard University, 562
Radio, NBC Dedicates Six Programs to Education, 319; The Fourteenth Institute for Education by, 471; The Forthcoming Series of NBC Broadcasts on the Basis for Peace, 593; The Use and Misuse of, C. S. STEINBERG, 670
Rapp-Coudert Committee: A Legislative Committee Reports on New York City's Public-School System, 289
REED, H. B., The Confused Psychologies of Learning, 106
Re-Education for Life, F. A. DUDLEY, 91
REEVES, R. L., Advantages of a Separate Unit for Administering the Junior College, 136; Problems Confronting the Average High-School Graduate, 215
Regional Conference on Adult Education, May 19–20, 690
Rehabilitation, With, Problems in Mind, 42
Relationship of the Federal Government to Education, L. CARMICHAEL, 85
Religion, What Shall Be the Role of, in the Postwar World?, 317
Religious Education, Ignored but Basic to National Well-Being, J. P. WILLIAMS, 598
Remedies Proposed for Teacher Shortage, 481
REMMERS, H. H., Attitudes toward Germans, Japanese, Jews, and Nazis as Affected by the War, 138
RICCIARDI, N., and H. MCKELLIPS, A Letter to Present and Prospective Junior-College Students, 358
RICE, W. H., Comments on a Misleading Title, 634
Roommates: Intelligence vs. Marks, E. S. DEXTER, 194
Rural Education, The Committee on, Reports on the Teacher Shortage, 534
Russell, Dean William F., Submits a Notable Interim Report, 623
Russia: Tragedy in Kharkov, 316; Educational Miracle in Soviet, 536; The Educational Approach to Our Slavic Ally, 665

Salaries, Teachers', 429
Salary Increases, C. H. HENDRICKS, 213
SALISBURY, R., The Teacher at the Front Line of the War, 105
SAVELLE, M., History and the World Revolution, 61
Scholarship, University-, Examinations, 151; of Students Housed in Various Living Quarters, B. H. PETERSON, 221; U. S. Students Win, Awards in Latin America, 404
Scholarships, New, Offered at the University of Chicago, 594
SCHOOL AND SOCIETY, The Usefulness of, as a Text, P. H. SHEATS, 158; The New Format and Other Matters Concerning, 492
School, Morale and Discipline as Affected by the War, 11; Marks vs. Mental Tests in Rating Secondary Schools: A Second Study, L. D. HARTSON, 80; Legislative Committee Reports on New York City's Public-School System, 289; Intrinsic Causes for Public-, Absences, A. W. PLATT, 307; Children Who are Underweight, M. V. MARSHALL and M. L. HUBER, 610
Schools, Business of the, as Presented at the Chicago One-Day Conference, 289; for Children in Exile, 430; A Note on the Lack of Research in Music, W. A. KERR, 476; A Novel Device for Presenting World News to the Public, V. KERSEY, 605; The "Times" Test and Our Public, P. P. BOYD, 620; Some Effects of the War on the Lower, 664; Wartime Program for Elementary, 683
Science, The Co-operative Committee on, Teaching Makes a Report, 151; The Second Annual, Talent Search, 331; New Development in American, at Brown University, 561
Scientists at Sixteen, B. BLIVEN, 57
Second Front at School (in Holland), W. C. WICHERS, 386
Selectees, A Resolution of the In-Service Training of, 41; One in Four, 18-, 19-Year-Old, Rejected as Unfit, 402
Seventeenth National Competitive Examination for High-School Pupils, 13
Shall, We Be More Practical, R. A. HUME, 4; We Have a Blitzkrieg in the Support of the Schools?, L. L. CHISHOLM, 133
SHANNON, J. R., A Protest against War Hysteria in High Schools, 217
SHANNON, J. R., and M. A. KITTLE, Geographical Distribution of Leaders in Education—1941, 26
SHAW, R. S., What Is History?, 634
SHEATS, P. H., The Usefulness of "School and Society" as a Text, 158
SHERMAN, J. L., Whither Bound, Independent Secondary School?, 300
SIEMENS, C. H., A Defense of the High Schools against Charges of War Hysteria, 412
Simplicus and Perplexides, Decide that Isolationism Is Not Dead, W. W. PARKER, 73; on Postwar Planning, W. W. PARKER, 499; The Spring Sweat, W. W. PARKER, 630
SIMPSON, B. R., The Environmental Differences of Children in the Same Family or School, 396
SIMS, V. M., Evaluation in the Southern Association Study, 76
Slidefilms, The Correlation of, with the PIT Program, L. S. METCALFE, 442
SMITH, E. J., A College Student's Evaluation of Latin, 658
SMITH, F. W., Abbott Lawrence Lowell: An Appreciation, 239
SMITH, M., A Second Report on Changes in Attitudes toward the Negro, 388
SNAVELY, G. E., No Treaty of Peace!, 485
SNEDDEN, D., Training vs. Education, 214
SOS Curriculum for 16- and 17-Year-Old Boys, J. M. BREWER, 688
South, Notes on a, American Trip, C. WASHBURNE, 29; The "Messianic" Invasion of the, after 1865, E. W. KNIGHT, 645
SPENCER, R., Mental and Social Health in Health Education, 239
Spencer's, Dr., Questions, J. E. WISE (S.J.), 160
"Spirit of Unthoroughness" in American Life and Education, 592
Spring Sweat, The, W. W. PARKER, 630
Stanford Conference of Junior-College Teachers of American History, G. H. KNOLES, 162
Statement of Year's Activities of the Joint Committee on Accrediting, J. J. TIGERT, 25
Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges—1942—Part II, R. WALTERS, 32
STEINBERG, C. S., The Use and Misuse of Radio, 670
STEVENS, V. C., The Twelve- to Eighteen-Year-Olds, 475
STODDARD, G. D., The Weapons of Education, 613
STRANG, R., Forward to More Effective Health Education, 693

Summer, Workshops under the Sponsorship of the ACE, 209; Preliminary Announcement of, Terms, 291; Sessions, 1943, at the University of California, 494; A Variety of Courses to Be Featured in, Sessions, 534; -Session Bill of Fare, 653; Variety Adds Spice to, Sessions, 699
Supreme Court Hands Down an Educationally Significant Decision, 696
Survey and Some Conclusions, J. C. KNODE, 118
Survival of the Liberal-Arts College, C. C. WILLIAMS, 449

Taxation, Teachers and, 533
TAYLOR, W., What Colleges Learn from War, 487
Teacher, -Education Conference at University of Minnesota, 69; at the Front Line of the War, R. SALISBURY, 105; A Conference on In-Service, Education, 262; The Plight of the, under the Present Federal Tax System, L. MOREY, 314; -Learners in Workshops, C. A. DE YOUNG, 672
Teacher Shortage, How May the Increasing Demands for Teachers of Physics Be Met?, H. L. DODGE, 22; Shortage of Instructors in Japanese and Chinese Languages, 125; War Manpower Situation in Physics, H. L. DODGE, 299; How Shall the Increasing Demand for Teachers Be Met?, 469; Remedies Proposed for, 481; The Committee on Rural Education Reports on the, 534; The "Wartime Refresher Service" at Teachers College, Columbia University, 562; Meeting the, in New Mexico, 683
Teachers, the AAC Will Try to Find Essential Jobs for Displaced College, 179; again Win Praise for Their Services, 292; The Higher Institutions Have Lost 7,000 Staff Members since 1941–42, 401; Salaries, 429; Program for the Training of, at the University of Illinois, 430; and Taxation, 533; College Wins Its Case on the Lincoln School Issue, 543; An Important Conference on the Education of, 575; As the, Colleges Ignore the "Externa" of Education, H. B. MULFORD, 600; and the Shape of Things to Come, N. G. GOODMAN, 632; A Summer Workshop for Nursery-School and Kindergarten, 699
Tenure, An Important Court Decision Regarding a Superintendent's, 591
Test, The "Times," and Our Public Schools, P. P. BOYD, 620
Testing, Common Misconceptions about, and Evaluation, H. B. DUNKEL, 617
Textbooks McGuffey Didn't Write, J. A. NIETZ, 421
There's, Something about a Word, V. C. COULTER, 504; a Lion in the Way, 572
THORNDIKE, E. L., The Values of Studies in Relation to Character, 279
THORPE, C. D., Education and Postwar Problems, 337
Three-Year Study of Consumer Education, 11
TIAA Reports Progress during a Wartime Year, 380
TIGERT, J. J., Statement of Year's Activities of the Joint Committee on Accrediting, 25
Time-Saving Idea Goes to Washington, 263
TINSLEY, P. M., College Curricula, the War Effort, and Postwar Stabilization, 281
To Those Who Retire, C. B. HENNEL, 703
TOLLEY, W. P., Contribution of the University to the Winning of the War and the Peace, 113
Training vs. Education, D. SNEDDEN, 214
TRAXLER, A. E., Progressive Methods as Related to Knowledge of American History, 640
Trends and Problems in State School Finance, 68
TROW, W. C., A Comment on "The Messianic Complex," 357; Liberal Education, the Social Sciences, and Total War, 522
Tuition Plan, Inc., The Annual Forum on Education of the, 263
TURNER, F. H., The National Association of Deans and Advisers of Men, 637
TUTTLE, H. S., But—There Is No Certainty of Restoration!, 303
Twelve- to Eighteen-Year-Olds, V. C. STEVENS, 475
Twins in "Who's Who in America," E. S. DEXTER, 219

University-Scholarship Examinations, 151
U. S. Students Win Scholarship Awards in Latin America, 404

Vacations, About School, R. BYRNS, 175
Valentine for an Ambitious Instructor, G. P. DILLA, 185
Values of Studies in Relation to Character, E. L. THORNDIKE, 279
Vassar, A New Schedule at, College, 263
Veterans, In the Interest of, Returning from the War, 471
Victory Farm Volunteer Program, Frederick B. Knight to Head the, 379
Visual Education: A Novel Device for Presenting World News to the Public Schools, V. KERSEY, 605
Vocational, W. W. Charters Is the New Chief of Federal, Training, 10; Education and Industrial-Arts Classes in High Schools, M. WOLFSON, 576

WAKEHAM, G., High-School Mathematics: Higher Standards or More Time, 540
WALKER, C. R., Language Teaching Goes to War, 369
WALTERS, R., Statistics of Attendance in American Universities and Colleges—1942—Part II, 32
War, School Morale and Discipline as Affected by the, 11; The Negro College and the, -Training Program, L. L. WOODS, 19; Football in a, Program, E. J. BROWN, 20; Courses at Russell Sage College, 41; A Resolution of the In-Service Training of Selectees, 41; Exchange Fellowships for United States Students Out "for the Duration," 68; Education and the "Psychological Disarmament" of the Axis, 96; The Teacher at the Front Line of the, R. SALISBURY, 105; Contribution of the University to the Winning of the, and the Peace, W. P. TOLLEY, 113; Distribution of, Films, 123; No Fabian Policy at the University of Chicago, 124; Holding the Line for Civilization on the Home Front, R. PULLIAM, 132; Attitudes toward Germans, Japanese, Jews, and Nazis as Affected by the, H. W. REMMERS, 138; Initial Problems of the Refugee Children's Homes in Montmorency, France, E. PAPANEK, 141; Following a Great Tradition Even in, 152; Civilian Morale and Mental Health, L. A. AVERILL, 169; Commissioner McNutt Holds Out Hope for the Smaller Colleges, 178; The AAC Will Try to Find Essential Jobs for Displaced College Teachers, 179; The Work of the Committee on Aid to Librarians in, Areas, 179; Old Friends with New Faces, 180; Further Comment on "Liberal Studies in the Present Crisis," F. C. WHITMORE, 191; Nature of This, and American Education, E. C. KOLLMAN, 201; Resolutions of the, Congress of American Industry, 208; New Entrance Requirements at Drexel Institute of Technology, 209; Youth Eager to Shoulder Its Responsibilities, 209; A Protest against, Hysteria in High Schools, J. R. SHANNON, 217; Hysteria in 1917 and in 1943, 234; Demands for Student-Personnel Service, F. A. FREDENBURGH, 255; Bonuses for British Teachers, H. DAVIS, 259; A Time-Saving Idea Goes to Washington, 263; College Curricula, the, Effort, and Postwar Stabilization, P. M. TINSLEY, 281; A Plan Concerning High-School and College Inductees, F. S. FREEMAN, 285; Teachers again Win Praise for Their Services, 292; Youth Welfare Councils, 293; Nazis "Liquidate" Holland's Intellectuals, 293; Light in Darkness, J. M. MILLER, 296; Manpower Situation in Physics, H. L. DODGE, 299; Where Are the Colleges of Yesteryear?, 306; The Plight of the Teacher under the Present Federal Tax System, L. MOREY, 314; Tragedy in Kharkov, 315; or No War, the Classics Carry on, 317; Education in the Occupied and in the Axis Countries, 319; Art and the, Effort, L. L. WINSLOW, 324; Democracy and the Totalitarian State, T. E. WILLIAMS, 325; Educational Issues of 1942 and the Task Ahead, C. V. GOOD, 341; Morale Poll on the Cornell University Campus, 349; The High Schools and the, R. PULLIAM, 354; Letter to Present and Prospective Junior-College Students, H. MCKELLIPS and N. RICCIARDI, 359; Nation-Wide Tests for Admission to the Navy College-Training Program, 359; Language Teaching Goes to, C. R. WALKER, 369; NEA Launches a, -and-Peace-Fund Campaign, 377; Meetings Scheduled in the Interest of Education Become, "Casualties," 378; Frederick B. Knight to Head the Victory Farm Volunteer Program, 379; Second Front at School (in Holland), W. C. WICHERS, 386; Effect of the, on Junior Colleges in California, 387; One in Four 18-19-Year-Old Selectees Rejected as Unfit, 402; Norway under the Gestapo and the Quizlings, 405; Pass the Ammunition to the Girls, R. CASSIDY, 408; Defense of the High Schools against Charges of, Hysteria, C. H. SIEMENS, 412; Pupil-Morale after One Year of, L. J. CRONBACH, 416; Schools for Children in Exile, 430; The Correlation of Slidefilms with the PIT Program, L. S. METCALFE, 442; Privately Endowed Colleges Challenged to Serve, 469; In the Interest of Veterans Returning from the, 471; The Twelve- to Eighteen-Year-Olds, V. C. STEVENS, 475; No Treaty of Peace!, G. E. SNAVELY, 485; What Colleges Learn from, W. TAYLOR, 487; Pre-Induction Training for Prospective Army Inductees, 512; Liberal Education, The Social Sciences, and Total, W. C. TROW, 522; An Army Venture into Adult Education, K. YOUNG, 546; Convention Never Held, B. FARLEY, 549; "Join the 'Wits'!", 560; A College Registration Service for the Camps and Cantonments, 561; New Development in American Science at Brown University, 561; An Educational Bridge between High School and the Army, 562; Further News of Foreign Education Released by the OWI, 563; The Herculean Task of Licking Youth into Shape for Service, 578; Physical Education and the, Program in the Chicago Public Schools, W. H. JOHNSON, 587; A Conference to Find Latent "Skills and Talents," 593; Plans for Education of Demobilized Men and Women in Britain, 595; The Weapons of Education, G. D. STODDARD, 613; Professors of Education as National Leaders in the, Crisis, 652; My Part in This, 662; Some Effects of the, on the Lower Schools, 664; -Fitness Conference, B. FARLEY, 674; An SOS Curriculum for 16- and 17-Year-Old Boys, J. M. BREWER, 688

Wartime, Moral versus Technological Values in, Education, T. E. BENNER, 19; Adjusting California Junior Colleges to, Needs, 70; Discipline versus Freedom in, Education, C. I. GLICKSBERG, 243; Is Higher Education Expendable in?, I. D. WEEKS, 253; Adult Education in, 403; Program for Staffing the Schools of Florida in, A. R. MEAD, 509; Refresher Service at Teachers College, Columbia University, 562; An Institute for Family and Child-Care Service in, at Vassar College, 625; Literature in, J. R. MOORE, 631; In Defense of the Classics in, Education, 663; Program for Elementary Schools, 683; Psychology of, Planning, 704

WASHBURNE, C., Notes on a South American Trip, 29

We Need More than Bifocals, D. C. MCINTOSH, 478

Weapons of Education, G. D. STODDARD, 613

WEAVER, D. A., Wealth and Creative Scholarship in the Making of a University, 479; A Comprehensive View of the Liberal-Arts Tradition, 574

WEEKS, I. D., Is Higher Education Expendable in Wartime?, 253

WHEELER, J. L., M. E. HAWES, and M. GUSE, Education Books of 1942, 452

White Consultants to a Negro College Workshop, L. W. HARDING, 413

WHITMORE, F. C., Further Comment on "Liberal Studies in the Present Crisis," 191

Why Study History?, R. V. MAGERS, 197

WICHERS, W. C., A Second Front at School (in Holland), 386

WILLIAMS, C. C., Survival of the Liberal-Arts College, 449

WILLIAMS, J. P., Religious Education, Ignored but Basic to National Well-Being, 598

WILLIAMS, T. E., Democracy and the Totalitarian State, 325

Willkie, Wendell L., on Latin and Greek, A. M. WITHERS, 659

WINSLOW, L. L., Art and the War Effort, 324

WISE, J. E. (S. J.), Dr. Spencer's Questions, 160

WITHERS, A. M., "Fortune's High-School Survey, 302; Much Ado about Language Nothings, 357; Latin versus the English Dictionary, 541; Wendell L. Willkie on Latin and Greek, 659

WOLFSON, M., Vocational Education and Industrial-Arts Classes in High Schools, 576

Woodrow Wilson Memorial Library and What It Stands for, 40

WOODS, L. L., The Negro College and the War-Training Program, 19

WOODY, T., "Slaves Need No Leaders," 304

Workshop on Our Neighbors and Our Allies, 625

Workshops, Summer, under the Sponsorship of the ACE, 209; Teacher-Learners in, C. A. DE YOUNG, 672

Wrath Incarnate, J. P. MILLIGAN, 75

Writing Clinic at Iowa State College, D. MALLAM, 51

Yale, University's Policy Regarding the Admission of High-School Seniors, E. S. NOYES, 104; University Continues Its Traditional Policy toward the Liberal Arts, 470
YOUNG, K., An Army Venture into Adult Education, 546
Youth, Eager to Shoulder Its Responsibilities, 209; An Official National, Policy, 261; ". . . The Individual Withers, and the World Is More and More," 292; Welfare Councils, 293; Education Grooms the City-Bred, for the Farm, 348; National, Movement in Britain, 495

BOOKS REVIEWED

BARNARD, J. D., V. V. DRENCKHAHN, F. A. MILLER, W. G. WOODS, and H. J. OTTO, Community Workshops for Teachers in the Michigan Community Health Project, 327 (H. R. BECKER)
BENEDICT, A. E., Progress to Freedom: The Story of American Education, 246 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
BOYD, J. (editor), A Basic Book Collection for High Schools, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
BURCKHARDT, J., Force and Freedom, 542 (L. BRYSON)

CRAWFORD, M. M., Student Folkways and Spending at Indiana University 1940–41, 690 (J. S. ROUCEK)
CRUZE, W. W., Educational Psychology, 305 (R. A. MACKIE)

DRENCKHAHN, V. V., F. A. MILLER, W. G. WOODS, J. D. BARNARD, and H. J. OTTO, Community Workshops for Teachers in the Michigan Community Health Project, 327 (H. R. BECKER)

EVANS, D. L., Essentials of Liberal Education, 574 (D. A. WEAVER)

HARRAL, S., Public Relations for Higher Education, 673 (D. A. WEAVER)
HAWES, M. E., What To Read on Psychology, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
HUBBELL, R. W., 4000 Years of Television, 673 (L. BRYSON)

INMAN, S. G., Latin America, Its Place in World Life, 636 (W. HILL)

KNIGHT, E. W., Progress and Educational Perspective, 480 (J. H. BUNZEL)
KOTSCHNIG, W. M., Slaves Need No Leaders, 304 (T. WOODY)

MCCONNELL, T. R., and Others, The Psychology of Learning (41st Yearbook, Part 2, NSSE), 106 (H. B. REED)
MANWARING, E. W., and H. R. WARFEL (editors), Of the People, 23 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
MORPHETT, M. V., C. WASHBURNE, and M. SNOW (editors), The Right Book for the Right Child, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

NEEDHAM, J. (editor), The Teacher of Nations, 137 (I. L. KANDEL)

OTTO, H. J., J. D. BARNARD, V. V. DRENCKHAHN, F. A. MILLER and W. G. WOODS, Community Workshops for Teachers in the Michigan Community Health Project, 327 (H. R. BECKER)

RAUSHENBUSH, E., Literature for Individual Education, 49 (H. A. DOMINCOVICH)
ROGERS, W. P., Andrew D. White and the Modern University, 479 (D. A. WEAVER)

SNOW, M., M. V. MORPHETT, and C. WASHBURNE (editors), The Right Book for the Right Child, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
SWEDENBERG, H. T., JR., L. B. WRIGHT (editors), The American Tradition: National Characteristics, Past and Present, 23 (W. W. BRICKMAN)

WAHLQUIST, J. T., The Philosophy of American Education, 441 (H. H. HORNE)
WARFEL, H. R., and E. W. MANWARING (editors), Of the People, 23 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
WASHBURNE, C., M. SNOW, and M. V. MORPHETT (editors), The Right Book for the Right Child, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
WESLEY, E. B., Reading Guide for Social Studies Teachers, 606 (W. W. BRICKMAN)
WOODS, W. G., H. J. OTTO, J. D. BARNARD, V. V. DRENCKHAHN, F. A. MILLER, Community Workshops for Teachers in the Michigan Community Health Project, 327 (H. R. BECKER)
WRIGHT, L. B., and H. T. SWEDENBERG, JR. (editors), The American Tradition: National Characteristics, Past and Present, 23 (W. W. BRICKMAN)